Payment and Consent Forms for Trips

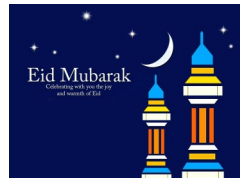

We have recently had a lot of consent forms and payments for trips returned long after the deadline. We do not have the time or resources to constantly chase up parents and carers for overdue payments and consent forms.

Please ensure that you check your child's bag on a regular basis and ensure that school have up to date telephone numbers as we will always send out a text reminder when payment is due.

If you do not return the relevant paperwork/payment by the deadline stated then your child may lose their place on their trip and

Eid Mubarak

To all of our families celebrating this weekend may we wish you all Eid Mubarak!

Year 1 Phonics Screening

Well done to all of our Year 1 children who have worked really hard on their phonics!

NSPCC Assemblies

Information has been sent home to all parents regarding the NSPCC assemblies and workshops that we will be holding in school.

Please do have a read of the letter. If you do not

September 2018 Nursery Places

We still have a limited number of morning, afternoon and full time places available in our Nursery from September 2018.

If you know anyone who would be interested please ask them to contact the office for an application form. Thank you.
