

The staff and governors warmly welcome you and your child into our school's community. We believe in a strong partnership between the school and the parents or guardians, in the best interests of pupils, and would like to ask you to enter into an Agreement of Partnership.

Parents or guardians, like the school, have duties towards the children. We set out these duties below as pledges, and include pledges for your child as well:

Pledges for the Parent(s) or Guardian(s):

I/we promise that, having chosen All Saints' Church of England Primary School for _____, I/we will accept the school's overall aims and objectives, and positively support the class teacher.

I/we will endeavour to:

- ensure regular attendance and punctuality, and provide explanations for absence
- support high standards of work and behaviour
- ensure that the school has up-to-date information for emergency contact
- keep the school informed on end-of-day child collection arrangements, and support the code of conduct, which seeks to guarantee a caring, secure and disciplined environment
- let the school know of any problems which might affect my/our child's work or behaviour
- attend parent-teacher consultations about my/our child's attainment and progress
- support school community events

- support all school policies eg. The wearing of school uniform and adhering to the school's jewellery policy.
- encourage my/our child in homework and other opportunities for home learning

Pledges for the School:

We will do our best to make you feel welcome and needed at school, and to give you every opportunity to be involved in our teaching and learning programmes. We will give you regular information about your child's progress in acquiring knowledge and skills, and we will give you early notice of any concerns we may have about learning, behaviour or relationships. We will seek in every way to give your child an excellent education, both academic and social.

The School will endeavour to:

- set high standards, and provide a quality education for your child
- encourage your child to achieve his or her potential in all aspects of school life
- care for your child as a valued member of the school community, irrespective of gender, race or religion.
- maintain a code of conduct which fosters a caring, secure and disciplined environment
- provide a broad and balanced curriculum, matched to the needs of all
- keep parents and guardians informed about any changes in the policies of the school, and about general school matters
- extend quality care to everyone connected with the school.
